Councilor, Buchanan & Mitchell, P.C., Provides Scholarship to Montgomery County 8th Grade Student

Councilor, Buchanan & Mitchell, P.C. (CBM) and twelve other Montgomery County, Maryland businesses, recently provided scholarships to the Catholic Business Network of Montgomery County Foundation (CBN Foundation). The CBN Foundation sponsors an anonymous essay contest for eighth grade students planning to attend Catholic High Schools, and this year, awards were given to ten students totaling more than $17,000. The recipient selected for the $1,500 CBM scholarship was Sean McGovern, an 8th grade student at John the Evangelist School in Silver Spring. President of the Catholic Business Network of Montgomery County (CBN-MC) Mike Miller presented the students' awards at a luncheon on March 10, 2009.

“At CBM, we take great pride in contributing to the success of future generations. We hope that Sean carries on the tradition of excellence as have the recipients who have preceded him,” says S. Vincent Crescenzi, President and Managing Partner of the firm.
