CBM Named “Firm of the Year 2016” by NonprofitCPAs

June 28, 2016 (Bethesda, MD & Washington, DC) – CBM, a leading full-service CPA and business advisory firm with offices in Bethesda, Maryland and Washington, DC, was named “Firm of the Year 2016” by Nonprofit CPAs at the Enterprise Worldwide SuperConference16 held in Miami, Florida.

“CBM was chosen for this award based on several factors,” said Patrick Pruett, Executive Vice President of The Rainmaker Companies. “First, CBM’s nonprofit niche growth of 23% organically in 2015 is impressive and we want to award firms that are growing business.”

“In addition to the growth, Dan and his team are active in the group showing great participation at meetings, conference calls, and whenever assistance is needed. Last year, CBM also became a licensee for the Certified Nonprofit Accountant Program (CNAP) and thus is demonstrating leadership and expertise in their local nonprofit community. For our team, all of these factors made it an easy choice.”

Two of CBM’s partners - Dan Weaver, CPA, Vice President and Director of Not-for-Profit Services and Pat Drole, CPA, PFS, Executive Vice President - accepted the award on behalf of the firm. Pete Reilly, President and Managing Partner, and Richard Morris, Executive Vice President and Director of Tax Services, were also present at the awards ceremony.
