CBM Receives “Top Marketing Initiative 2015” Award from EW

July 31, 2015 (Bethesda, MD & Washington, DC) – CBM, a leading full-service CPA and business advisory firm with offices in Bethesda, Maryland and Washington, DC, recently received the award for “Top Marketing Initiative 2015” from Enterprise Worldwide at this year’s SuperConference 15 held in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Adélaïde Ness, Executive Vice President of The Rainmaker Companies – Alliances, presented the award.

“This year, it was my pleasure to give the award to CBM,” Ms. Ness said. “This firm has undergone a lot of change in the last couple of years, including a new managing partner, several mergers, and lots of initiatives in their marketplace. During such busy times, it’s easy for a firm to put marketing on the back burner, but this firm did the opposite. Amy Stark, CBM’s marketing manager, took each of these opportunities by the horns and worked quickly to produce articles, press releases, and announcements about all of the exciting changes. CBM was quick to disseminate that information to the greater DC metropolitan area as well as to niche publications and Enterprise Worldwide. CBM has truly developed a well-oiled marketing machine, something I know all of our EW members strive to do.”

Peter B. Reilly, CPA, CVA, CBM’s President and Managing Partner, was in attendance and accepted the award on behalf of the firm.

Enterprise Worldwide (EW) is an affiliation of 110 CPA firms in the United States and 40 different countries. EW’s mission is to challenge member firms to work collaboratively by actively participating, communicating, referring business and sharing resources so that they and their clients have access to quality accounting, tax and consulting services across the globe.
