CBM'S PROJECT CLEAR PATH REACHES SUCCESSFUL 6 MONTH MILESTONE

July 31, 2014 (Bethesda, MD) – Councilor, Buchanan & Mitchell, P.C. (CBM), a leading Bethesda, Maryland-based full-service CPA and business advisory firm, is pleased to announce the successful completion of the first six months of Project Clear Path, the firm's new mentorship program. Launched in January 2014, Project Clear Path is designed to help CBM employees by providing them a clear path to meeting personal and firm-wide goals.

"CBM is committed to the success of our staff," said Peter B. Reilly, CPA, CVA, President and Managing Partner of CBM. "We have a large number of senior staff members with a great deal of knowledge and experience who have been more than willing to share. The firm-wide interaction has created a vibrant atmosphere."

CBM's Professional Development committee, chaired by Sean Griffin, CPA, MBA, Senior Manager, has also developed personalized training schedules for all personnel as well as a comprehensive "Knowledge Sharing" program offering training on various accounting-related topics, software, and marketing. In addition to the mentorship and training programs, CBM recently introduced CBM MyPlace, a personalized webpage for each employee that allows them to access everything from their vacation and 401(k) balances to the best traffic route to take home.
