CBM Partner John Comunale to Participate in National Alliance of Auto Dealer Advisors Annual Meeting

NAADA Meeting Keeps Dealer Accountants and Advisors Current with Industry Trends

April 27, 2017 (Bethesda, MD & Washington, DC) – John Comunale, CPA, Senior Vice President and Director of Automotive Industry Dealership Services at Councilor, Buchanan & Mitchell P.C. (CBM), a CPA and business advisory firm with offices in Bethesda, MD and Washington, DC, will participate in the annual meeting of the National Alliance of Auto Dealer Advisors (NAADA) in Long Beach, Cal. from May 9-11, 2017.

NAADA is a national network of accounting and business consulting firms that provides clients with the local, national and international perspective necessary to prosper. Each member firm, such as CBM, has a vast wealth of experience serving the accounting and advisory needs of auto dealerships and businesses that serve them.

“CBM believes an investment in this group helps us stay current with the needs of our clients,” said Comunale. “Many of our relationships with auto dealers have lasted for decades because we continue to understand the challenges facing this industry and offer effective business solutions that serve their future success.”

NAADA hosts its annual meeting with featured presenters from the auto dealer industry speaking on trending topics. This year’s Long Beach event will focus on a tax update, a client perspective on issues facing dealerships, an update on valuations and buy-sell agreements, strategies to help dealers lower their processing fees and a variety of roundtable discussions on selected topics.

Comunale has nearly 30 years of experience serving the accounting and business needs of auto dealer groups. CBM has worked in the industry since 1921 when the Model T was in production. The firm currently specializes in delivering high-quality professional accounting services to auto, heavy-duty truck, motorcycle, RV and dealership groups.
