Expertise

- Not-for-Profits
- Tax Planning and Compliance

Education

- B.S. Accounting, University of Maryland

Jeff May is a senior advisor and a former partner at Councilor, Buchanan & Mitchell (CBM) with more than 30 years of experience in public accounting. Before joining the firm, he was responsible for the overall quality control of the tax practice at May & Barnhard, P.C., a Bethesda, MD-based tax and financial consulting firm that he co-founded and which merged into CBM in November 2017. In that role, he also specialized in providing tax services and benefit planning to individuals, closely-held businesses and not-for-profit organizations.

While Jeff enjoys a diverse industry mix of clientele, he is known for his expertise in the professional services, real estate, oil and gas, retail, government contracting and internet commerce industries. He also works closely with not-for-profit organizations, helping them obtain tax exemption, addressing unrelated business income tax complexities, and achieving public support tests.
