Jane Ochsman Rowny, CPA, CFP®, CDFA®, is a life transition financial planner. She focuses her practice on providing divorce support, financial and tax planning, and wealth management to individuals. Jane helps clients transition through life's significant changes toward the realization of their goals. She listens, supports, and guides her clients to make informed decisions about their finances.

Key decisions include changes in financial circumstances due to divorce, marriage, retirement, the death of a spouse, inheritance, plans to start a family, saving for college and strategic investment management. Jane helps clients understand the possibilities and evaluate their options, and guides them towards sound financial decisions.

A specialist in delivering creative solutions for financial challenges, Jane has more than 25 years of experience that includes expertise in divorce and prenuptial financial planning, financial planning, investment advisory services and individual tax planning and compliance.

As a director of Councilor, Buchanan & Mitchell (CBM)'s divorce finance and litigation support services, Jane guides clients from initial inquiries through the completion of a divorce and beyond. She provides as prenuptial and nuptial financial planning. Her expertise encompasses collaborative divorce, mediation, litigation support and expert witness testimony. Jane has assisted with negotiations in several hundred divorce matters and is qualified as an expert in Montgomery and Howard counties in Maryland, the District of Columbia and Fairfax County in Virginia.

Jane loves to be outdoors and active, from playing tennis, golf, pickleball to skiing the slopes in Colorado and Utah. Her most notable outdoor activity, though, is hiking, having traversed sections of the Everest Base Camp Trek in Nepal, the W Trek in Patagonia, old Inca trails to Machu Picchu and the magnificent trails in many U.S. national parks. She's passionate about conservation and the environment and has participated in a conservation safari in Africa that focused on elephant and lion migration and health. When at home, Jane loves spending time with her family, friends and cats, and enjoys cooking and gardening.
