Councilor, Buchanan & Mitchell Recognized by Accounting Today for the Second Consecutive Year as a Leading Firm in the Capital Region

April 4, 2022 (Bethesda, MD & Washington, DC) – Councilor, Buchanan & Mitchell (CBM), a full-service tax, accounting and advisory business serving clients in the Washington, DC metropolitan and Mid-Atlantic regions, was recognized by Accounting Today for the second consecutive year as a regional leader among accounting firms in the Capital region for above-average growth. Professional accounting firms throughout the Capital region, which encompasses Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, Washington, DC and West Virginia, experienced an average growth of 10.8% in 2021. CBM surpassed that mark, growing by 14.29%, the fifth highest of the 19 firms recognized by Accounting Today.

“We are pleased to be recognized once more by a leading news source in the accounting industry,” said Daniel L. Weaver, CPA, president and managing partner of CBM. “Despite the turbulence from the pandemic, our business remains strong. CBM shifted successfully to remote client service, professional education and communications strategies in early 2020, sustaining our client-centric model so that we could continue to accommodate the professional accounting and advisory preferences of individual and institutional clients. Our strong growth rate is a testament to our team’s expertise and the trust we continue to earn with clients.”

The Capital region leaders list appears in a publication distributed annually by Accounting Today, a leading information source for public accountants that delivers analysis, breaking news, opinion and expert advice, and practical business-building ideas to improve businesses and client service within the accounting industry.
